

KIMPTON MUSE HOTEL UNVEILS COMPLETE RENOVATION

NEW YORK – (August 2019) – Kimpton Muse Hotel has gone through a complete renovation, transforming spaces such as the lobby and fitness center to provide guests with new and exciting experiences as they embark on their adventures in New York City. A gem in Times Square, Muse is conveniently located just steps away from shopping, sightseeing, museums, theater and nightlife, providing close proximity while still offering a quiet escape.

The hotel's renovation has provided guests with a newly redesigned lobby space that includes a brand-new bar & lounge, Muse Bar, which serves up delicious food and specialty cocktails. Menu highlights include Lump Crab Devil Eggs, Classic Chicken Pot Pie and an Irish Coffee Caramel Sundae. Cocktail highlights include War of the Roses, Knickerbocker Cocktail, a Pornstar Martini and much more. Guests of the hotel can visit Muse Bar for a drink in the evening or for the hotel's breakfast buffet in the mornings.

Additionally, all of the suites at the hotel include more than 400 square feet of newly redesigned apartment-style accommodations, providing a comfortable living room area and king-size bed. All of the suites in the hotel are equipped with Gaiam yoga mats, signature animal print robes, flat screen HD TVs, and luxury Atelier Bloem bath amenities.

Fitness enthusiasts will enjoy an intense workout in the hotel's brand new 24-hour fitness center, which includes state of the art equipment, such as Peloton bikes. The fitness center also provides treadmills and elliptical cross trainers that have individual LCD TV screens, as well as free weights and balance balls.

Kimpton Muse Hotel looks forward to introducing the newly renovation space to new and returning guests as their new home away from home in New York City.
